IASHA Awards Banquet

On February 25, 2007 IASHA held its annual awards banquet at Maggianos. Every season IASHA members are awarded points for placing at qualified horse shows around the United States. At the end of each show season the horse or equitation rider that has accumulated the most points in their division becomes the Champion. There are many divisions that one can receive an award in. Some of the most popular and competitive are the Show Pleasure and Academy divisions.

This year's awards banquet was a wonderful success with members from across Indiana joining together to celebrate this year's Parade of Champions! A special thank you is extended to Dawn Kendrick, Claire Panke, Joan Todd, Dee McNealy and Linda Beltz for their group effort to make the 2007 awards banquet a success. The banquet would have not gone as smooth as it did without their participation.

Congratulations

Ross Drake

Ross has won the Meritorious Service Award from Indiana American Saddlebred Horse Association.

Criteria for winning: The Meritorious Service Award honors persons for their contributions to ASHA on almost all levels over a long period of time. Only ASHA members are eligible.

Nominations & Selection: All nominators must be active members of the American Saddlebred Horse Association and submit in writing, accompanied by a short biography of the nominee, their opinion as to why the person should receive the award. The deadline for receipt of nominations is November 15. The nominations will be reviewed by the Board of Directors and a winner will be selected by vote of all Directors.

Winners receive: A custom-crafted julep cup, which is symbolic of the highest honor upon which one can be bestowed by the American Saddlebred Horse Association.

Emily Abbott

Emily has won the Frank Ogletree Youth Award from Indiana American Saddlebred Horse Association.

Criteria for winning: This award honors one youth each year who has exhibited a sportsmanlike attitude throughout his or her show career. Nominees must be active ASHA Junior Members who have demonstrated participation and achievement within the show ring, exhibited positive personal characteristics, as well as having served as true role models for their peers.

Who is the award named after: This award was established to honor James Frank Ogletree, Jr. (1930-1985), who gave unselfishly of his time and talents as an ASHA Director. Because of his daughter Ellen, he was especially interested in young people and encouraged their involvement with American Saddlebred horses.

Nominations & Selection: Nominations are accepted from personal or professional references. All nominations must be in writing and include the name and a brief description of why they feel he or she qualifies for this award. The deadline to submit nominations is November 15. Nominations are reviewed by the ASHA Youth Committee for recommendation to the ASHA Board of Directors and a winner will be selected by vote of all Directors.

Winners receive: A custom-crafted julep cup is symbolic of the highest honor upon which one can be bestowed by the American Saddlebred Horse Association, and a Life Membership with ASHA.

For Your Information

- ◆ The Hoosier Horse Fair is back again from March 30th to April 1st. IASHA is still looking for volunteers to help out at our booth. We are also in need of old and unwanted magazines with a focus on Saddlebreds. Feel free to drop off magazines at our booth while visiting. Please contact Linda Beltz at 317-244-9702 if you would like to volunteer or have magazines to donate.
- ◆ IASHA Spring Warm Up is just around the corner! This year the Spring Warm Up will be held on April 21st at Luralwood Stables, Sheridan, IN. Remember the Spring Warm Up is the first show on the 2007 IASHA Qualifying Horse Show list and by participating in this event you can earn points toward the 2007 Parade of Champions! Look for the approved 2007 IASHA Qualifying Horse Show list in the next newsletter and online.
- ◆ Please remember that points earned for the High Point Award are not retroactive. You must be a member of IASHA at the time you show to be eligible for points awarded at that show. Please be sure that you have a current IASHA membership. A membership form is enclosed with this newsletter.

Another congratulation is in order!

The Indiana American Saddlebred Horse Association has been recognized as one of the two 2006 Charter Clubs of the year honored by the American Saddlebred Horse Association. They recognized the Colorado charter club as well.

Our club could not have won this award without the dedication of its officers and board members, past and present and its wonderful members.

Good Job!
